Dear FS,

I, being a middle class of the society, strongly support your tax reform. Everybody should shoulder the responsibility of paying tax regardless of how much you earn. As you earn more, you are able to spend more and pay more tax. Absolutely fair!!!

In recent decades, many Hong kong people have to work "shuttle-run" between Mainland and Hong Kong. Most of them did not pay a penny to Hong Kong government, as they claimed themselves paying the tax to Peoples' central Government. The inland revenue had no means to cross check their claims!! A strong sense of unfairness emerged from us who working in Hong Kong and be fully taxed upon salary.

I never mind pay more tax if I can. I do mind people consuming the social resources of Hong Kong but never return a penny to the society.
