for sale tax , im really understand why u have to build up in hk..becuase u ar in the government view.not consider public feelings...

i m 26 yrs old..the following view i really want to talk to u speak frankly..do u think there is many beniefit for public in HK??i dont think so...

the sales tax it only benefit for the middle class...ar u really want to ; 斷斷their heart to support u??? i m not the middle class and i m not the lower class too...this tax is totally unfair..why benefit for those middle class??they still have the power to enjoy their life..why not benefit us???? i guess u even dont understand what the people suffer who ar not middle or upper class..

for me..im not very rich..no money to enjoy my life..everything is expensive hk..im marry .my husband and me still have to give money to our parents..and there is so many thing to suffer in our life...the sales tax is totally be me suffer.....i will not support your sale tax...and i think u ar so lucky not understand what ppl suffer...and i believe many ppl will agree me..

HK government is too capitalistic...everything is money for "government"..and i believe when i die..i ask myself what governemt did give me???hk is not like oher country..ppl in other country they have good life although they have really high tax.....they have money to enjoy their life..ther life index is higher than us.....they have fix time to work , many holiday , they have great envoinment..but HK not...

we only give money to government..and we cannot enjoy anything....HK government only know know the 房地產...only know how to sell your land...to make so air pollution..!!!!to build higer and higher building..HK government steal our envorment...

u tell me..this governemt what benefit for us?????????i i know many ppl in lower class they suffer poor life..they have illness they save money to have their suffer...how about u??u can eat great meal every day , wear great suit to c public ,no illness,,how about them?????????????????

i m so disappointed for your point of view and i will not support the sale tex, if u too selfish ..u better not be our 財政司司長.....
