

15/08/2006 15:50

☐ Urgent

☐ Return Receipt

To: <taxreform@fstb.gov.hk>

cc:

Subject: tax reform

Dear People,

I suggest the best way to broaden the tax base and increase revenues on an on-going basis is to institute a property tax.

I further suggest that the majority of the money raised from this property tax go to improve our schools. By improving educational opportunities (thru smaller classes, more teachers, more libraries, etc.) for the children of Hong Kong, we will insure a more prosperous future for Hong Kong.

Sincerely,

Paul Jeffrey Brice