I am a HongKong student studying oversea in Canada where they have a pretty mature GST system. Other than GST they hav PST system too which is quite a burden as it increase the price i pay for 15%. GST is not a system for the poor as they have to buy daily things and this will increase their burden too. Even as i go to McDonald i have to pay more. You should think about adding tax on luxurious items more than anything. And the GST will definitely decrease my interest for shopping.
