Subject: My opinion on tax reform. Say No!

Dear sir/madam:

I has a master degree, age 30, female, and born in Hongkong.

I deeply wish this message can be expressed to the officers who will deeply reconsider this tax reform matter. I strongly disagree with introducing sales tax!!!

From my work experience in North Amercia, China and HongKong, introducing sales tax will first weaken Hongkong economy status in the first few years! And the worst is, the economical edge of HongKong as a financial hub is reducing rapidly this few years, threatened by Shanghai, Singapore, Shenzhen, Guangzhou and even Macau.

I love HongKong and I hope you are the same. I am proud to be a Hongkongese and introducing sales tax will definitely has long term negative effect in the economy. I prefer to raise tax further on luxury goods, including but not limited to alcohol, tobacco, cars, and gasoline.

I hope my voice can be listened in the government!

Best regards,
Leung Yu Man
