

To: taxreform@fstb.gov.hk
cc:
Subject: tax reform

15/03/2007 21:47

- Urgent
- Return Receipt

It is quite strange that lots of Hong Kong residents working in the Mainland do not need to pay tax in Hong Kong but they and their families are enjoying the medical benefits, welfare and free education of Hong Kong. I suggest the Government should consider taxing HK residents' income earned outside Hong Kong.

H K Cheung